Dear Mr. Kesselman:

I am returning the 1842 $5 gold piece struck by the Dahlonega Mint. Since there is very little difference in the size of the date from that I now hold, I am somewhat reluctant to make the investment. Please know I appreciate your time and courtesy in sending the coins to me. Perhaps at a later date, you will have something that I do not have.

Sincerely,
